

According to the US Census Bureau by 2042, non-white minorities will make up more than 50% of the US population. As a response to a clear need, Elizabeth Colón founded Metaphrasis Language & Cultural Solutions, LLC (Metaphrasis) in 2007.

Metaphrasis is a full-service language company connecting businesses with their diverse clients and community. Our language services include onsite interpreting, telephonic interpreting, translation services, cultural diversity training, interpreter training, language assessment testing, voice-overs and consulting.

The company is privately owned and is a woman/minority owned business. For more information please visit Metaphrasis at:
