COMPANY BACKGROUND

Elizabeth Colón, President and Founder of Metaphrasis Language and Cultural Solutions established the company in 2007 in Frankfort, IL. In June of 2010, Metaphrasis reached another milestone with its expansion of a second office in the city of Chicago, The Intercultural Center, a division of Metaphrasis. The expansion was part of the strategic business plan to accommodate for new services, enhanced customer service and technology, new business and hiring of additional Language Service Professionals.

Metaphrasis is a full-service language company connecting businesses with their diverse clients and community. Language services include on-site interpreting, telephonic interpreting, document translation, cultural diversity training, interpreter training, language assessment testing, voice-overs and consulting.

Metaphrasis consultants are language professionals. They are interpreters, translators, and trainers. They are immigrants, first-generation Americans, citizens, teachers, mentors, and life-long learners. They are dedicated professionals with the ability to provide cost effective solutions to help you better communicate with your clients, show your commitment to your employees, enhance community relations and help you enhance marketability. Our dedication to professional growth, the industry and our community, has led Metaphrasis to be an active member of the following organizations;

American Translators Association
Frankfort Chamber of Commerce
Illinois Hispanic Chamber of Commerce
International Medical Interpreters Association
Midwest Association of Translators and Interpreters
National Association of Woman's Business Owners
National Council of Healthcare Interpreters
